

Christu Jyothi Convent Senior Secondary School

class- 3rd

subject- msc

chapter- 6 (A polite king)

Answer the following questions (page number 23)

1. Why did the poor man present sweet water to the king?
Ans. The poor man present sweet water to the king because he loved him.
2. Why did the king show pleasure in drinking the tasteless water?
Ans. The king show pleasure in drinking the tasteless water because the pleasure on the face of the king was the reward for poor man.
3. What did the poor man get in return from the king?
Ans. The poor man get love and politeness in return from the king.
4. What is politeness. explain it with the example?
Ans. Politeness is a divine quality. it is to be gentle, loving and to show respect to others .we can take the example of a polite King story.

Fill in the blanks (page number 23)

1. Politeness suggests that we do not hurt anyone in public.
2. Politeness is to be gentle and loving.
3. A poor mam decided to take the water to his king.
4. The man took the water in a goat skin.
5. A polite person a polite person always respect others.

Write true false (page number 23)

1. The king offered water to the queen: False
2. The king rewarded the poor man by showing love towards him : true
3. The water was tasteless: true
4. If you give respect you will get respect : true

END.