

CH-6

POLITICAL FEATURES OF INDIA

BOOK WORK

1 Tick the correct option:

1 India has _____ states and _____ union territories.

Ans * 28,8

2 Union territories are ruled by:

Ans (c) central government

3 States and unions territories are:

Ans (a) political divisions

4 _____ is the largest state areawise.

Ans (d) Rajasthan

5 The capital of chandigarh is:

Ans (a) chandigarh

II. Fill in the blanks:

1. A political map shows the political divisions of a country.
2. Hydrabad is the capital of both Andhra Pradesh and Telangana.
3. Telangana is the newest and twenty-ninth state of India.
4. The smallest union territory is Lakshadweep.
5. Delhi is the national capital territory.

III. Match the following:

- | | |
|--------------------|----------|
| 1. Bihar | Bhojpuri |
| 2. Jammu & Kashmir | Dogri |
| 3. Daman & Diu | Gujarati |

4. Odisha Santhali

5. Puducherry Tamil

COPY WORK:

IV. Answer the following questions briefly:

Q 1. Name the national capital territory of India.

Ans 1. Delhi is the national capital territory of India.

Q 2. Name the languages spoken in Uttrakhand.

Ans 2. Hindi, Snaskrit, Garhwali & Kumaoni are languages spoken in Uttrakhand.

Q 3. Name the largest & smallest state areawise.

Ans 3. Areawise Rajasthan is the largest state and Goa is the smallest one.

Q 4. What is a political map?

Ans 4. A map that shows political divisions of a country is called a political map.

Q 5. What is the other name for central government?

Ans 5. The other name for the central government is Union government.

V. Answer the following questions:

Q 1. What are union territories?

Ans 1. Union territories are type of administrative divisions in the republic of India.

Q 2. What is a state government?

Ans 2. State Government controls a state a political division of India. It looks after needs of the state & it's people.

Q 3. What are the languages spoken in Jammu & Kashmir?

Ans 3. Kashmiri, Hindi, Dogri, Urdu, Ladakhi, Pahari, Punjabi are the languages spoken in Jammu & Kashmir.

Q 4. Name two Union territories of India where Gujarati is spoken widely.

Ans 4. Dadra & Nagar Haveli, Daman & Diu are two Union territories of India where Gujarati is spoken widely.

Q 5. Why have political divisions been made?

Ans 5. Political divisions have been made for efficient administrative purposes.

