

CHRISTU JYOTHI CONVENT SR. SEC. SCHOOL, BARAUT

CLASS-4TH SUBJECT-S. ST LESSON NO. 9 (BOOK WORK AND COPY WORK)

Book work

I. Tick the correct ✓ option.

1. Monsoon arrives in India in.

Ans. b. early June

2. During winters Tamil Nadu gets:

Ans. c. Heavy rainfall

3. Which season is called the 'queen of seasons'?

Ans. C. Spring

4. 'Loo' is experienced in :

Ans. a. northern plains

5. Climate is not governed by the :

Ans. c. Soil type

II. Fill in the blanks.

1. In summer, coastal areas are kept cool by the cool breeze from the sea.

2. During the winter months, the nights are longer than the days.

3. The monsoon winds bring rainfall to India.

4. The monsoon winds carrying moisture blow from the Arabian sea and the Bay of Bengal towards the land.

5. The climate is a regular pattern of weather conditions in an area over a long period .

III. Mark the the statements as true or false.

1. Weather keeps changing from day to day. (T)

2. The winter season starts in June in India. (T)

3. Hot and dry winds blow in North India during monsoon. (T)

4. Rajasthan receives abundant rainfall. (F)

5. Tamil Nadu receives heavy rainfall in summer. (F)

IV. Answer in brief.

Q. 1 Name the main seasons in India.

Ans. Winters, summers, autumn, spring and the monsoon season.

Q. 2 What is the other name for monsoon?

Ans. Rainy season.

Q. 3 What cause rainfall in the mountains during winters?

Ans. Strong winds from the west called the western disturbances cause snowfall in the mountains.

Q. 4 Define weather?

Ans. Weather is the state of the atmosphere at a certain place and time.

Q. 5 Why is India's climate labelled monsoon climate?

Ans. Because the monsoon winds play an important role in the climate of India

V. Answer the following questions:

Q. 1 List the factors that define India's climate.

Ans. Distance from the equator places which lie near equator are hot altitude the higher location of a place is is the colder it is. Distance from the sea the coastal areas have moderate temperature.

Q. 2 What is a season? Name the Seasons in India.

Ans. When weather remains same for some time am, we call it a season there are five seasons winter ,spring, autumn, summer and the monsoon season.

Q. 3 Mention any four characteristics of cold weather season.

Ans. Winters have cold and chilly days. Days are short and Nights are long. Coastal areas have pleasant weather while the mountains are very cold. Morning are accompanied by dense fog.

Q. 4 Why do coastal regions have a moderate climate?

Ans. Because sea heats or cools much slower than the land.

Q. 5 List any four main features of hot weather season.

Ans. Summer season begins from April and last till June. The sun rays fall directly in summers. Days are long and night are short.

The hot and dry winds blowing in the northern plains in summers are known as 'Loo'. The cool breeze from the sea keeps the coastal areas cool.