

Class – 6

Sub. – M.Sc.

Ch. – 9

Learning to Confess

A. Answer the following questions:

Q.1 – Who should say sorry to whom?

Ans. – One should confessed own mistakes and say sorry to others.

Q.2 – Why is it necessary to confess?

Ans. – It is necessary to confess to avoid unnecessary quarrels and unpleasant situation.

Q.3 – How does confession help a person?

Ans. – By confession a person can remove all causes of enmity and restore friendship.

Q.4 – What prevents one from confessing?

Ans. – The self importance of a person becomes so high that it prevents one from confessing.

Q.5 – What happens if one does not confess?

Ans. – If one does not confess trouble and misunderstanding will start.

B. Fill in the blanks:

- 1. Confess is the declaration of our mistakes.
- Everybody makes mistakes.
- It is much simpler to blame others.
- It takes lot of courage to admit our mistakes.
- Trouble start when our pride forces us to blame other for our own mistakes.

C. Write T for true and F for false:

- It is very easy to say sorry.T
- Finding excuses will not solve problems.T
- The wife should say “I’m sorry” to the husband.F
- The winner is the one who takes the first step, to confess.T